

TRUE CRIME

SHOWCASE

sphereabacus

Click titles to go to page

Returnable Series

Bloodline Detectives
In the Footsteps of Killers
Inside Evil with Chris Cuomo
Killer in Plain Sight
Love You to Death
Making a Serial Killer
Murder by Medic
Murdered at First Sight
My Lover, My Killer
When Missing Turns to Murder

Standalone Series

Becoming Ian Brady
Boetie Boer: Inside the Mind of a Monster
Breaking Dad: Britain's Unlikeliest Drug Dealer
Butchers of LA
Butchers of the Bayou
Cold Case Investigators
Confessions of a Crime Boss
Dating Death
#Dead2Me
The Disappearance of William Tyrrell
Donal Macintyre: Unsolved
The Family Court Murders
The Footballer, His Wife and the Crash
The Granny Killer: The Unsolved Murders
The Heiress and the Heist
Hostage in the Apple Store
I, Hostage
The Ice Cream Wars
The Irish Mob
Ivan Milat: Buried Secrets
Kill Thy Neighbour
Killer Performance
Married to a Psychopath
Massacre in Moscow

Meet, Marry, Murder
Millionaire Murders
Moors Murders
Murder Detective
Murder in Amish Country
Murder in the Badlands
Murder: Fight for the Truth
Murdered: Baby on the Beach
The Murderous Scissor Sisters
The Night Caller
Porn King: The Rise & Fall of Ron Jeremy
The Radical Story of Patty Hearst
The Real Manhunter
The Real Serpent: Investigating a Serial Killer
The Real Unforgotten: The Murder of Carol Morgan
Rich and Acquitted
Ross Kemp: Mafia and Britain
Secrets of a Murder Detective
Sleeping with My Murderer
Terror on Long Island
Unmasking a Killer
Vanished: The Lucie Blackman Mystery
Wasp Woman: Murder of a Cult Movie Queen

One Off Features

Aileen: Life and Death of a Serial Killer
Aileen Wournos: The Selling of a Serial Killer
The Baby Footballers
Behind the Blood
Biggie & Tupac
The Celtic Cartel
Confessions of a Psycho Killer
The Dakota Entrapment Tapes
Death in the Heartlands
Deep Web: The Hunt for Dread Pirate Roberts
Dogs of War
The Durban Axe Murderer: The Rugby Killer
El Chapo & Sean Penn: Bungle in the Jungle
The Fake Match & The Fixer
Falklands: Island of Secrets

The Footballer Fraudster
Football's Trillion Dollar Con: For King and County
Girl, Taken
In the Cold Dark Night
In the Shadow of 9/11
Kardashian: The Man Who Saved OJ
Killing Escobar
Last Man Standing: Suge Knight
and the Murders of Biggie & Tupac
The London Underground Killer
Look Away
The Man Who Stole the Scream
The Marathon Brothers
Monkey on a Stick. Murder, Madness
and the Hare Krishnas
Murder at First Swipe
Murder in a Teacup
The Murder of Meredith
The Murder of Sandra Rivett
Murder Rap: Inside the Biggie and Tupac Murders
The Murder that Changed Britain
My Name is Bulger
Original Sin: My Son the Killer
Princess Anne: The Plot to Kidnap a Royal
Prophet's Prey
The Spy Who Fell to Earth
A Tale of Two Thieves
Tales of the Grim Sleeper
When We Speak
Yusuf Hawkins: Storm Over Brooklyn

Bloodline Detectives

Seasons 1-5: 100 x one hour
Filmrise, CBS Reality

In the same way that DNA profiling fundamentally changed forensic science, Familial DNA testing is supercharging DNA profiling.

It is the forensic revolution that is seeing cold cases solved all over the world and Bloodline Detectives explores and tells the stories of some of the most extraordinary cases solved to date.

Using witness testimony, new interviews, archive footage and dramatic reconstructions, Bloodline Detectives is a compelling and highly watchable television series which reveals a new and dynamic form of crime fighting.

“★★★★★
Truly unique...
a phenomenal series.
THE HORROR REPORT

In the Footsteps of Killers

Seasons 1-3: 15 x one hour
Channel 4

Silent Witness star Emilia Fox and leading criminologist Professor David Wilson investigate famous unsolved murder cases, looking for new leads that the original investigations may have missed.

Investigated like a documentary and filmed like a drama, In the Footsteps of Killers is a television hybrid in which an unsolved murder is solved in each episode and takes audiences inside a crime like never before.

“Cases may go cold, but the fight for truth and justice must continue.
THE DAILY RECORD

Inside Evil with Chris Cuomo

Seasons 1 & 2: 10 x one hour
HLN

In this multi-part investigative series, CNN's Chris Cuomo does a deep dive into the psychology of murder and violence.

Are murderers born or made? Is violent behaviour genetic? Chris interviews serial killers in maximum security prisons about their predatory urges. Behavioural scientists, and criminal psychologists who have studied these monsters discuss their research findings.

Chris also takes viewers behind the scenes with criminal investigators as they hunt for a serial rapist and survivors share their compelling stories about how they escaped with their lives.

Killer in Plain Sight

52 x half hours
Investigation Discovery

Killer in Plain Sight is a riveting whodunit, featuring disturbing cases of murder where the detectives look at all those involved as a suspect, and must filter the lies from the truth in order to crack the case.

It's only when the perpetrator is caught that we realise they were there all along, right before our eyes: the loved one making an emotional appeal, the neighbour who helped in the search, the family friend who gave an interview, while all the time they had blood on their hands.

Love You to Death

Season 1: 20 x one hour
BET+

When rage replaces love, passion turns into pain, Love You to Death goes inside the hearts and minds of lovers whose dysfunctional relationships – with an underlying air of potential violence – leads not to couple's therapy but to murder.

Each episode of Love You to Death is the story of one tragic and horrific homicide that was the result of a twisted world of passion, lies and jealousy where seemingly decent people turn into brutal murderers.

Making a Serial Killer

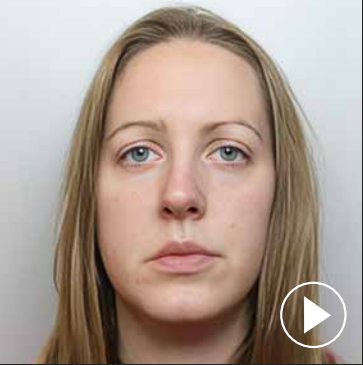

Seasons 1 & 2: 20 x one hour
Filmrise

This gripping true crime series examines the crimes and minds of some of the world's worst serial killers, to reveal what turned them into the monsters they are.

Through powerful first-hand testimony from those who knew the killers up close, along with the legal teams that bought them to justice, this series reveals the appalling details of each tragic case – and how each killer was ultimately bought to justice. Meanwhile, analysis from expert criminologists and psychotherapists unravels the minds and motives of each killer, finding patterns and behaviours that could help identify other killers before it's too late.

Murder by Medic

Seasons 1-4: 52 x one hour
A+E Networks, Crime + Investigation

They know how to kill and they know how to cure. Inside a hospital, at home, or maybe even next door. They are trained to save lives but also know how to take them. This is Murder by Medic.

We are at our most vulnerable when ill, trusting our medics to care for us, to diagnose, to offer us treatment, to fix what's wrong. Our doctors and nurses are taught how to save lives but what happens when they decide to take lives instead? What happens when they don't cure us, what happens when they kill us?

This series tells the stories of 52 medics who have murdered their patients or used their medical know-how to kill closer to home.

Murdered at First Sight

Seasons 1-3: 30 x one hour
FilmRise, Channel 5, Sky Crime

Most killers know their victims, Murdered at First Sight investigates the alarming rise in 'Stranger Murders' and the challenges faced by the police in tracking down the suspect of an entirely random homicide.

With these cases, there are no disgruntled partners, no jealous relatives, no family squabble... they leave behind devastated families and terrified communities. And these seemingly motiveless murders, notoriously difficult to crack, are on the rise.

My Lover, My Killer

Seasons 1-3: 26 x one hour
Channel 5, Netflix

Love can be a very dangerous thing. This series tells the stories of those who paid the ultimate price for offending an obsessive lover. The murder stories are told with key interviews from those closest to the case, including testimony from family and friends of the victims, and the investigating officers who tracked down the killers.

These tangled tales of forbidden love, lust, jealousy and deceit have all the key ingredients of a classic murder story.

When Missing Turns to Murder

Seasons 1-3: 30 x one hour
A+E Networks, Crime + Investigation, Netflix

250,000 people go missing in the UK every year. Some are found alive, some have taken their own lives and others simply vanish. But there are vast numbers of cases in the UK where missing person investigations suddenly become the worst thing imaginable.

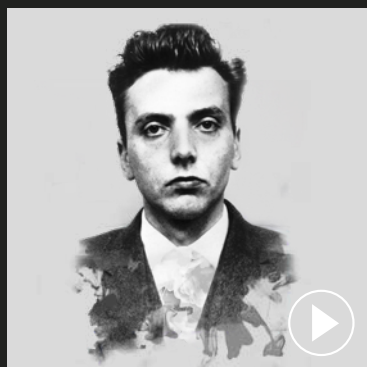

This series reveals first-hand the impact on families, the police process, and the emotional and investigative shift 'when missing turns to murder'.

“Chilling... fascinating.”
THE GUARDIAN

“Needs to be on your watch list.”
HELLO!

“Haunting.”
DAILY MAIL

Becoming Ian Brady

3 x one hour
Prime Video

Becoming Ian Brady presents the complete story of Britain's most notorious killer.

Between 1963 and 1965, Brady along with his partner Myra Hindley, horrifically killed five children in the Greater Manchester area. It was a series of crimes that devastated families, changed a community, and shocked the world.

Framing events through Brady's involvement and the evolution of his twisted desires, the series examines the impact of the murders and questions how they could have happened.

The three episodes examine Brady's upbringing, early 'career' and what led him to commit some of the most unspeakable acts the world has ever seen.

Boetie Boer: Inside the Mind of a Monster

5 x one hour
Showmax

The year is 1990 and South Africa is on the verge of great change for its people, a new era of equality and democracy is on the horizon. But in the windy city of Port Elizabeth a new threat is emerging, his name is Steward Wilken aka Boetie Boer, and his slate of brutal murders is only just beginning. He would go on to become one of South Africa's most notorious killers in a spree that would last nearly a decade.

“So spine-chilling it seems unreal.

IOL (South Africa)

Breaking Dad: Britain's Unlikeliest Drug Dealer

2 x one hour
Prime Video

How Richard Lubbock, a mild-mannered, North London, Jewish family-man became Britain's biggest meth dealer is now revealed for the first time.

Inspired by his son James's memoir Breaking Dad, this stranger than fiction story recounts a cautionary tale as Richard risks everything to swap his comfortable life for one of crime at a time when one of the most addictive drugs on the planet was making its way into the beating heartland of the London club scene.

Also available: 1 x 90-minute
& 1 x 60-minute versions

“A startlingly open portrait of a life and a wholly unusual path into criminality that makes it all seem strangely accessible.

DAILY MAIL

Butchers of LA

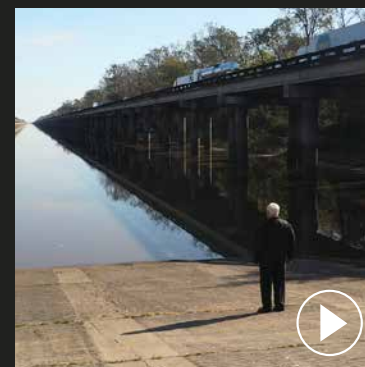

3 x one hour
Sundance Now

Similar targets; three killers; three different M.O.'s. From the early 1970s, gay men were being savagely murdered and their bodies carelessly discarded along freeways across Los Angeles. Police feared a hate crime targeted at the homosexual community. In time it turns out that three killers were operating, independently of each other, but in the full knowledge that victims other than their own were being murdered.

With intertwined storylines and dramatic twists and turns throughout, this is an extraordinary story of savage, targeted hatred and an investigation which found itself constantly confused and reeling from the discovery of new murders with different approaches to their deviance.

Also available: 1 x 90-minute version

Butchers of the Bayou

4 x one hour
A+E Networks, Crime + Investigation

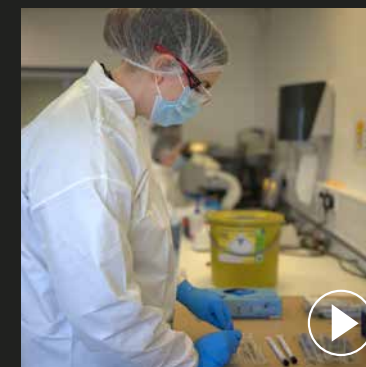

Two serial killers operating separately from each other terrorise Baton Rouge and its surrounding area over the span of a decade.

Federal investigations into unsolved murder cases of women were going nowhere as there were so many incidences. From 1991 to 2001 there were 53 unsolved murders of women in Baton Rouge, many coming from different backgrounds and ethnicities and involving different causes of death. Attempts to sift through potential suspects led them astray because not only were they focusing on a wrong profile, but they did not consider they were dealing with more than one serial killer at the time...

“A gripping true crime mini-series.

LAUGHING PLACE

Cold Case Investigators

2 x one hour
BBC

Across the UK, there are hundreds of thousands of unsolved sexual offences lying dormant in police archives. Some go back decades.

By harnessing the power of modern DNA techniques, an exceptional group of detectives has been achieving what was previously impossible – identifying perpetrators and getting justice for victims whose crimes happened years ago.

Moving and powerful, this unprecedented access based series takes us into the cutting-edge science identifying the offenders, the emotional stories of the victims at the heart of these stories and follows the determined detectives hot on their trails.

“★★★★★

A gripping account of historical crimes and those who solve them and the processes are fascinating.

THE GUARDIAN

Confessions of a Crime Boss

3 x one hour
Virgin Media TV

Through his own words, John Gilligan recounts his days moving up through the criminal underground of the 1970's & 80's in Dublin.

In the 1990's Gilligan was the most successful drug trafficker in the British Isles. Growing up in poverty in Ireland, he found comfort in a life of petty crime that would intensify beyond all his expectations. His crimes escalated from bank robberies to cannabis importation and gave him a life of privilege and connections with criminals all over the globe.

This explosive documentary mini-series, is the product of over forty hours of exclusive one-off interviews with Gilligan.

Dating Death

3 x one hour
Sky Crime, Sundance Now

Dating Death explores the tumultuous times of the 1970s, and unveils how Rodney Alcala's reign of terror spread from Los Angeles to New York.

The series will travel back in time to his first known crime in Los Angeles 1968. Eventually, a federal investigation uncovered a string of victims across four state boundaries, from 1968 to 1979, and led to his arrest.

Preying on women and children, Alcala deceived his unsuspecting targets by posing as a successful photographer. With an IQ of 160+, he used his intelligence to engage his victims in order to exploit them for his sadistic games.

#Dead2Me

10 x one hour
A+E Networks, Crime + Investigation

True crime series that tells the tragic stories of intimate relationships that turn sour... and end in a brutal murder.

Each episode is led by the powerful first-hand accounts of families whose lives have been ripped apart when a loved one is killed by someone they shared their life with – but never really knew at all.

This moving testimony will be supported by cold hard facts from the police and legal teams at the heart of each case, with expert analysis on the appalling psyche of the killers from a professional criminologist.

The Disappearance of William Tyrrell

4 x one hour
Channel 7, Sky Crime

The search for the little boy in the Spiderman suit raises more questions than it answers.

The Disappearance of William Tyrrell breaks down the investigation into a step-by-step analysis, told through the captivating story skills of Australian journalist Caroline Overington, who has been covering the case since the beginning, and through the explosive first-hand experience of former Detective Inspector Gary Jubelin.

Also available:
2 x 90-minute version

Donal MacIntyre: Unsolved

10 x one hour
CBS Reality

Investigative journalist Donal MacIntyre examines some of the most notorious and intriguing unsolved cases in the UK and Ireland and why there have never been successful convictions.

With access to original case files and interviews with those close to the victims, Donal MacIntyre and his team shed new light on the cases and investigate why they remain unsolved despite modern detective methods.

The Family Court Murders

4 x one hour
ABC

Debi Marshall, Walkley award-winning investigative journalist and crime writer, is seeking resolution for the families of the Family Court victims: a series of shootings and bombings conducted by Leonard Warwick that killed 4 people and critically injured dozens.

Sparked by a custody feud with his ex-wife, the newly established Family Court system along with many others, became his targets. Despite a mounting body of evidence against him, Warwick was able to elude persecution for decades. Fascinated by the case, Marshall spent years delving into his life slowly piecing together the puzzle of who he is and of his crimes.

“An extraordinarily compelling programme.

NEWSTALK

The Footballer, His Wife and the Crash

2 x one hour
ITV

Jlloyd Samuel was part of the first group of players to benefit from the big money TV deals that drove the ascendancy of the Premier League.

Jlloyd's footballing dream, although initially very 'glamorous', became a nightmare, as gambling debts, injury and family tensions came to the fore. Jlloyd's widow Emma reveals how – following Jlloyd's death in 2018 when his Range Rover collided with a van and burst into flames, killing him instantly – she discovered not only that Jlloyd had seriously mismanaged his fortune, but also that he had a secret second life.

Also available:
1 x 67-minute version

The Granny Killer: The Unsolved Murders

2 x one hour
Channel 7

The investigation into the John Wayne Glover murders – 'The Granny Killer'.

The Australian newspaper journalist Caroline Overington works with an Australian criminal profiler in an investigation into the murders of six elderly women and presents a new theory – one that was that wasn't heard by the courts. Uncovering new evidence, new witnesses and seven new murders that would make him Australia's worst serial killer.

From the producers of After the Night, Ivan Milat: Buried Secrets and The Disappearance of William Tyrrell.

Also available:
1 x 90-minute version

The Heiress and the Heist

3 x one hour
Sundance Now, RTÉ

This is the story of Rose Dugdale and how she went from being an English debutante curtsying in front of the Queen to an avid supporter of the IRA and a shocking art thief.

The Heiress and the Heist is the story of the 1974 Russborough House heist and how a gang led by Rose Dugdale, a former debutante from London's high society, stole £8 million worth of paintings.

Their demands? To free the Price sisters who were facing a prison sentence for the 1973 car-bombing attacks and were being force-fed while on hunger strike.

“ Fascinating... a riveting account.
THE WALL STREET JOURNAL

Hostage in the Apple Store

2 x 45-minutes
AT5

In this documentary, victims, police officers and employees of the bomb squad look back at their experience during the frightening hours of the hostage taking in the Apple Store in the centre of Amsterdam.

Documentary maker, Roos Gerritsen, creates an exhilarating story using security camera footage and never seen before footage of a bodycam worn by the hostage taker. This exclusive insight, combined with interviews of police officers, bomb squad team members and the victims, draws the viewer into the hostage situation as if you were there that night.

I, Hostage

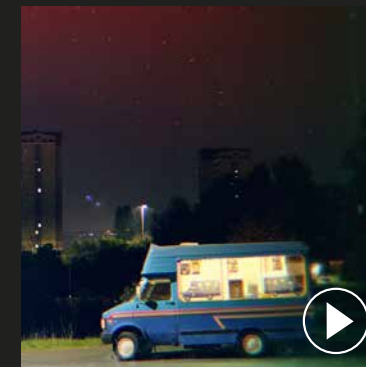

13 x one hour

I, Hostage is a deep-dive series that meets the people who have survived hostage-taking situations. At the mercy of madness, these people have lived to tell the tale of their survival as nerves were frayed and emotions were pushed to the breaking point.

Each episode features interviews with survivors who reveal in detail what the seconds, minutes, hours and days felt like from their insider's vantage point.

The Ice Cream Wars

2 x one hour
BBC

In 1984 six Glasgow family members died in an arson attack. Their murders were followed by one of Scotland's longest trials and a 20-year fight for justice.

In the early 1980s, Glasgow was a tale of two cities. Scotland's biggest city had new bars and restaurants, though its new housing schemes had little access to facilities and became a battleground in criminal warfare. Locals found themselves fighting over ice cream vans and the lucrative routes in these developments. With little alternative, ice cream vans thrived and evolved; making so much money that they attracted the attention of the city's gangsters.

“ Outstanding... it is hard to see any documentary doing a finer job than this one.

THE GUARDIAN

The Irish Mob

6 x one hour
Channel 7 Australia

From the Irish gangs of New York in the late 1800s through to the 1970s, this six-part documentary series tells the amazing stories of the first generation Irish kids who became some of America's most notorious and wanted gangsters.

With contributions from Pulitzer Prize winning authors, the gangsters themselves, family members and the cops who chased them down, this is the definitive story of the Irish Mob in America, told in its entirety for the first time.

Ivan Milat: Buried Secrets

4 x one hour
Channel 7

Definitive, compulsive and revelatory, this is the untold true story of serial killer Ivan Robert Marko Milat.

Ivan Milat, aka The Backpacker Killer, is Australia's most notorious serial killer. Now, after Milat's death in maximum security prison, Australia's foremost criminal investigative team set out to prove Milat had many more victims, many more burial grounds, and there are dozens of families who have lost loved ones and need closure.

Also available:
2 x 90-minute version

Kill Thy Neighbour

6 x one hour
Channel 5

Home is where we feel safest... until a killer neighbour strikes.

This series shows what happens when neighbourly feuds, grudges and flirtations are taken to murderous extremes, and tells of the predators hiding in plain sight in ordinary neighbourhoods. Intimate interviews with victims' families and investigating officers bring to life six stories of obsession, revenge, lust and madness, and what happens when the commandment to Love Thy Neighbour is forgotten.

Killer Performance

6 x one hour
Reelz

Exploring the diabolical personas of murderers who cry fake tears to manipulate the media and public in a disturbing attempt to exonerate themselves from their crimes.

Killer Performance delves into chilling cases where public appearances and police interviews played host for killers Ted Bundy, John Wayne Gacy, Drew Peterson, Chacey Poynter, Stephen McDaniel and Chris Watts to feign grief to persuade the public of their innocence.

Some aspects of the psychopathic mind these killers exhibited was the need to be in control, the egotistical belief that they were a step ahead of everyone else and the feeling that they were getting away with murder.

Married to a Psychopath

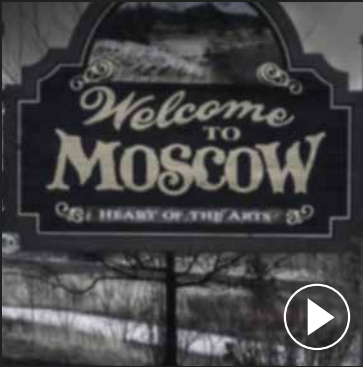

2 x one hour
Channel 4

The most unforgettable assignment of his career, former DI Charles Henry revisits the case of Malcolm Webster, a calculating, pathological liar, arsonist, thief and heartless killer.

From Charles' unique perspective, this is the never before told story of how one small town detective with time on his hands brought a ruthless killer to justice.

Detailing every twist and turn of a manhunt that spanned several continents and would later involve 20 detectives gathering more than 1,000 witness statements and issuing 90 search warrants for banks, building societies and solicitors, Married to a Psychopath is a suspense filled two hours.

Massacre in Moscow

2 x one hour
Sky Crime

In the early hours of Sunday, November 13th 2022, a man crept into a house close to the University of Idaho in the rural city of Moscow. Within minutes he had murdered Ethan Chapin, Kaylee Goncalves, Xana Kernodle, and Madison Mogen.

The killings were brutal and callous. The victims were stabbed multiple times. On December 30th, 28-year-old Bryan Christopher Kohberger, was taken into custody charged with the murders. Using a public genealogy database, authorities had identified a partial DNA match to an individual with a familial connection to Kohberger. Investigators then traced the DNA to him.

“ Critic's choice.
THE TIMES

Meet, Marry, Murder

52 x one hour
True Crime

Investigating cases of the most common form of murder – when a married person kills a partner.

It seems love can truly make us mad. Women who are murdered are more likely to have been killed by their husbands than anyone else. As for men, whilst it is more likely their assassin will be a friend or acquaintance, the second most dangerous person they face is their wife.

Millionaire Murders

10 x one hour
True Crime

Greed, jealousy, revenge, lust and anger. All motives for murder, but when there's cash involved the stakes are even higher. In each episode of this compelling series, a new case is revealed that collides the world's wealthiest people with the most gruesome of murders.

Filmed in luxurious style; investigators, family, friends and experts, all supported by personal and police archive – will take us on a gripping journey, with twists and turns that reveal how having it all could leave you with nothing.

Moors Murders

3 x one hour
Channel 4

The 1960s Moors Murders are Britain's most notorious crimes. Ian Brady and Myra Hindley murdered five children and buried the bodies on the local moors. The 'trial of the century', the mothers' grief and the decades-long police searches for the victims' remains fuelled public anguish.

This definitive series tells the full fifty years long story of the Moors Murders. With an extended interview of the only eye-witness to any of the murders and unprecedented access to Brady's and Hindley's never-before-seen prison correspondence, this series promises to offer compelling and chilling viewing.

Murder Detective

10 x one hour
A+E Networks, Crime + Investigation

Former senior Surrey detective and criminologist Graham Hill fronts this series; looking inside some of the most complex and shocking cases of recent years.

Graham Hill – best known for his work on the Madeleine McCann investigation – brings his 30-year experience to provide a full 360-degree perspective on the inner workings, twists and turns of the police work in some fascinating cases. Using key witness testimonies, new interviews, forensic and psychological experts, and archive footage, he uncovers the challenges and hardships faced by police and loved ones of the victims and the perseverance involved in bringing the perpetrators to justice.

Murder in Amish Country

6 x one hour
Investigation Discovery

Exploring some of the most extraordinary and challenging murder cases to ever face the police which took place in the closed and secretive world of America's Amish community.

Dramatic, original and revealing, Murder in Amish Country features some of the most extraordinary and challenging murder cases to ever face the police. All the killings take place in the closed and secretive world of America's Amish community which is notoriously distrustful of the outside world, very often preferring to deal with matters of justice internally.

Murder in the Badlands

4 x one hour
BBC

Four young women were murdered across four decades in Ireland's Badlands. Four murderers, one of them dead, the other three still at large, none of them ever having faced trial for their horrific actions.

The brutal murders of these four women across four decades in Northern Ireland remain unsolved mysteries and are explored in this documentary series.

Murder: Fight for the Truth

10 x one hour
CBS

True crime series that reveals how heroes use their expertise and passion to prove doubters wrong.

What does it feel like when the police, the courts, the media, the lawyers, the coroners, the experts and the public are all against you? When you're told that what you know to be true isn't right?

In this highly emotive and personal series, we find out how brave, determined and passionate people went above and beyond the call of duty in the hunt for justice.

Following a new case in each episode, we'll discover how, against all the odds, justice is served.

“ Truly inspirational.”
READER'S DIGEST

Murdered: Baby on the Beach

3 x one hour
Channel 4

A powerful story that tells the gripping tale of the murder of an unidentified infant in rural Ireland, which became a series of events that placed an international spotlight on prejudice, ignorance and police corruption.

In 1984, predominantly Catholic Ireland was caught in the midst of civil unrest. The shocking discovery of a violently murdered baby's remains on a beach in County Kerry launched an investigation into the heinous crime and triggers even greater social divides. The investigation, marred by prejudicial judgements of single mothers and 'fallen women,' casts suspicion on Joanne Hayes and her family without any real evidence.

“ Harrowing.”
THE GUARDIAN

The Murderous Scissor Sisters

3 x one hour
Prime Video

That two young women could stab and beat to death their mother's boyfriend is appalling enough. But Charlotte and Linda Mulhall sank to extreme levels of depravity when they mutilated Farah Swaleh Noor's body and then dumped his chopped-up remains in Dublin's Royal Canal.

This horrific story revolves around the events which led to the murder of a man who it was subsequently discovered was a predatory and violent rapist, resulting in one of the most intensive police hunts in Irish history.

The Night Caller

4 x one hour
Nine Network, Sky Crime

Australia's most infamous serial killer.

The Night Caller depicts and explores a killer's harrowing legacy – of tragedy, grief, responsibility and redemption – as seen through the eyes of a filmmaker returning to his childhood home, Perth (Australia), and spending time with those closest to the killer and his victims, whose lives he altered irrevocably.

“ [A] harrowing, smartly structured two-part documentary.”
THE TIMES

Porn King: The Rise & Fall of Ron Jeremy

2 x one hour
Channel 4

A compelling two-part documentary series exploring the rise and fall of the world's biggest porn star, Ron Jeremy.

Ron Jeremy was an American porn legend who crossed over into the mainstream. He became an icon who rubbed shoulders with Hollywood stars and performed in more than 2,500 films. But in June 2020 Ron Jeremy was arrested in LA and charged with 35 counts of rape and sexual assault against 23 women.

Also available:
1 x 90-minute feature

“ Riveting.”
THE GUARDIAN

The Radical Story of Patty Hearst

6 x one hour
CNN

Over 40 years later, newly discovered evidence, archival footage, cinematic recreations and exclusive first-hand accounts shed light on one of the biggest and most bizarre stories in modern American history.

The Radical Story of Patty Hearst is a six-part series that follows the transformation of Patty Hearst from heiress to terrorist in a saga of privilege, celebrity, politics, media, revolution and violence.

“ Impressively detailed.”
THE WALL STREET JOURNAL

The Real Manhunter

6 x one hour & 2 x 90-minutes
Sky Crime, Acorn TV, Channel 7

In this exclusive 10-part series, Detective Chief Inspector Colin Sutton (recently portrayed by Martin Clunes in ITV's huge hit drama Manhunt) will revisit cases he led and explore everything from the crime itself through to the breakthrough moment when the suspect was identified and arrested.

He will take the viewer on a journey from the moment the police were called to the scene, visit key locations, and explain how he and his team managed to gather enough evidence to secure a conviction.

Also available:
10 x one hour version

“Unprecedented access. This is a fascinating glimpse into the mind of a callous killer.”

THE SUN

The Real Serpent: Investigating a Serial Killer

3 x one hour
Channel 4

In the 1960s and 70s, countless young Westerners went to Asia, backpacking along the Hippie Trail. Some of them met a handsome young gemstone dealer called Charles Sobhraj. The lucky ones were drugged and robbed of their passports and belongings. The unlucky ones lost their lives to the serial killer who would become known as The Serpent.

In this unique investigation, serial killer Charles Sobhraj agrees to a series of psychological and criminal interrogations concerning murders that he's never been tried for, as experts try to get to the truth.

“★★★★★
Superb. A gripping documentary.”

THE TELEGRAPH

The Real Unforgotten: The Murder of Carol Morgan

2 x one hour
ITV

Carol Morgan was a loving mother of two whose skull had been smashed in an horrific manner in her corner shop storeroom back in 1981.

For decades it had remained unsolved. Carl Foster read the file and thought it was a once in a lifetime case; worth re-investigating. The old theory was that this was a robbery gone wrong, but all Carl's instincts tell him that something isn't right. There is a killer out there who hasn't been caught. He just has to find them.

Rich and Acquitted

6 x one hour
Reelz

Does the protective cloak of celebrity and the almighty dollar weigh down the scales of justice?

Welcome to Rich and Acquitted, a non-fiction series that explores six notorious cases of celebrities and other glaringly wealthy accused perpetrators who have used their vast resources to retain top-flight attorneys in order to escape legal situations that would otherwise destroy any normal human being.

Ross Kemp: Mafia and Britain

5 x one hour
A+E Networks, Crime + Investigation

For years it's been assumed that Britain has had no connection with The Mafia, but the truth is far more sinister. Incredibly, mafia bosses and hitmen have lived all over the UK – from caravan parks to shoe shops, semi-detached houses to newsagents.

To uncover the truth about the UK's relationship with the most notorious organised group in history Ross Kemp goes on a global journey to follow a trail of illegal money and drugs along an intricate path where history meets globalisation and reveal the reality of our relationship with the mob.

“★★★★★
Compelling.”

DAILY MAIL WEEKEND

Secrets of a Murder Detective

20 x one hour
True Crime

Presented by former Scotland Yard Homicide Detective Inspector Steve Keogh, this series invites viewers into the intriguing realm of crime solving. With 30-years of experience under his belt, Steve is opening up his contact books for the first time to reveal the secrets of what it really takes to be a murder detective on the frontline.

Each episode takes viewers on an immersive journey through the crime and its investigation, from the beginning to the pivotal breakthrough leading to conviction. Steve provides unique and authentic insights into the intricate workings of investigations and the minds of detectives, bringing viewers into the heart of each case.

Sleeping with My Murderer

10 x one hour
5 Star

Original British true crime series offering unrivalled access to ten tragically, ill-fated love stories.

Intimate interviews offer access to the inner workings of relationships as we hear tales of the deadly consequences of bad romance. In each of these gripping episodes, family and friends speak of the horror and heartbreak they have endured, sharing their stories of love turning sour and lovers turning killer. With contributions from law enforcement and legal professionals, each aspect of the case is forensically uncovered.

Choosing a partner is one of the most important decisions we make... learning to recognise the red flags could save a life.

Terror on Long Island

3 x one hour
Sky Crime

Terror on Long Island is a riveting docuseries that takes viewers deep into the chilling saga of a string of murders that haunted the Long Island area for over a decade.

The series begins by plunging viewers into the early days of the investigation, starting with the mysterious disappearance of Shannan Gilbert in May 2010. Gilbert, a young escort, vanished after making a frantic 911 call from a remote area near Gilgo Beach. What began as a search for a missing woman quickly spiraled into something far more sinister when police uncovered the remains of four other women, all wrapped in burlap and discarded along the desolate stretch of Ocean Parkway.

Throughout the series, viewers will be guided through the intricate details of the investigation, with exclusive access to first-hand testimonies from those directly involved in the case. Retired detectives, FBI agents, and forensic experts will provide insight into the challenges they faced.

Unmasking a Killer

5 x one hour, plus: 2 x one hour
update episodes
HLN

The terrifying real-life story of the Golden State Killer.

Unmasking a Killer profiles the terrifying real-life story of the Golden State Killer – a man responsible for a staggering 51 attacks and 12 murders in California. The series takes an in-depth look at the manhunt, alongside patterns, escape methods and mind games of the killer and includes interviews with investigators, law enforcement and victims, who have never spoken out publicly sharing their experiences to help bring the man who successfully flew under the radar for decades to justice.

“The show is highly detailed in its coverage of the case... unique for a true crime documentary.

CRIMINAL ELEMENT

Vanished: The Lucie Blackman Mystery

2 x one hour
Prime Video

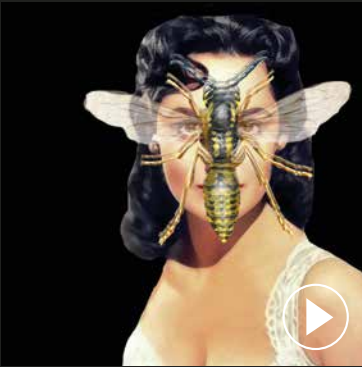

In 2000, Lucie Blackman, a 21-year-old former British Airways flight attendant, arrived in Tokyo in search of adventure.

Like many British 20-somethings, Lucie planned to experience a different culture and way of life. She got a job as a hostess in a hostess bar, a unique piece of Japanese nightlife based on the country's old geisha customs.

But, after only a couple of months, Lucie vanished...

Lucie's father Tim and sister Sophie help to lead the search for her. Could Lucie's job in the mysterious Japanese nightlife hold the answers for her disappearance?

Wasp Woman: Murder of a Cult Movie Queen

3 x one hour
Sundance Now

When an actress is found bludgeoned to death in an LA mansion, it sets off a shocking chain of events that exposes a state-sponsored human experiment gone horribly wrong.

Wasp Woman is an explosive, heightened, twist-in-the-tale feature doc that begins in the 1980s and continues today. It is part true-crime investigation – exploring international politics and the ethics of medical trials on young children and dwarves – and part stranger-than-fiction Hollywood Babylon, where life imitates art at the epicentre of American popular culture.

Also available: 1 x 90-minutes

Aileen: Life and Death of a Serial Killer

1 x 84-minutes
Channel 4

Nick Broomfield first tackled the story of the world's first woman serial killer in his 1992 film Aileen Wuornos: The Selling of a Serial Killer.

Aileen: Life and Death of a Serial Killer looks at Aileen's violent, tortured childhood in Troy, Michigan and her subsequent years on the road as a hitch-hiking prostitute which culminated in the murders.

In her last interview, conducted by Nick Broomfield at Aileen's request, she said she believed her mind was being controlled by radio waves. On October 9th 2002 she was executed in Florida.

“Terrific. It's an extraordinary document: astonishing, tragic, gutting, and terribly funny in the most ghastly way.

THE TIMES

Aileen Wuornos: The Selling of a Serial Killer

1 x 93-minutes
Channel 4

1992, Florida, USA. Aileen Wuornos is claimed to be the world's first female serial killer.

A hitchhiking prostitute, she killed seven of her clients, and was on death row in the State of Florida facing the electric chair.

The three main characters are Aileen Wuornos, whom we see in prison, her born-again Christian mother, Eileen Pralee, who recently adopted Aileen Wuornos, and her lawyer, Steve Glazer. The film raises a number of questions about official corruption, not least of which is whether in fact she is a serial killer at all, or if that label is just a commercial means of selling Aileen Wuornos and her story.

“Raw, fascinating...you can't turn your eyes away.

NEWSWEEK

The Baby Footballers

1 x 87-minutes
Showmax

This is the journey of four boys and their coach who traveled from the Ivory Coast to Italy on the promise of footballing glory.

Engineered by rogue agents, and the then-owner of Italian club FC Prato – the dream became a nightmare. With parents fooled into signing over guardianship, this is one of the rare occasions where a prosecution has made it to trial in Europe.

Behind the Blood

1 x 90-minutes

In the company of a pastor, an assassin and a crime reporter, this film examines the fine line between good and evil in the world's most dangerous city.

Priest and furniture maker Daniel Pacheco works in one of the most dangerous cities in the world: San Pedro Sula, Honduras. He tries to save lives, risking his own life. Reporting murders is everyday business for TV journalist Orlin Castro. Hitman Matathan wants to start a new, pious existence.

Biggie & Tupac

1 x 108-minutes

Biggie & Tupac is a no holds barred investigation into the still unsolved murders of two of the biggest superstars rap has ever produced.

Answering the crusading calls for justice from Biggie's mother Voletta, filmmaker Nick Broomfield hits the streets from East Coast to West Coast, putting his own life at risk as he uncovers sensational new evidence that points directly to the involvement of the LAPD and imprisoned Death Row Records co-founder Marion 'Suge' Knight in the violent slayings that shocked the hip-hop world.

“Gripping... it plays like a suspense thriller because that's exactly what it is.

LOS ANGELES TIMES

The Celtic Cartel

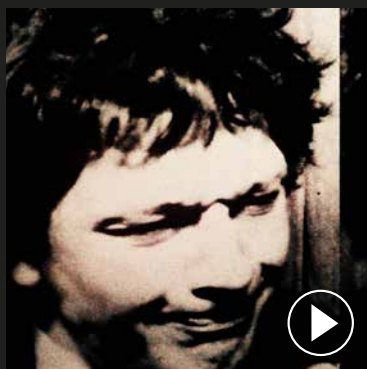

1 x 90-minutes
Prime Video

Europe's largest drug cartel. A bloody and murderous feud. The trans-national effort to dismantle their empire and the dynastic ambitions for legitimacy.

This is the astonishing true crime story of the Kinahan Cartel, their feud with former ally Gerry 'The Monk' Hutch and the desperate attempts to legitimise their £1 billion drug and arms fortune and secure the future of the dynasty.

Confessions of a Psycho Killer

1 x 95-minutes
Prime Video

This documentary takes viewers back to 1975, when the body of 63-year-old vicar Anthony Crean was found dead a quiet village in the English county Kent after a frenzied axe attack. A young man, Patrick Mackay, confessed to the killing and a series of follow up police interviews led to a disturbing series of confessions that spread into London.

What followed was a series of police interviews and confessions which would leave investigators stunned.

Death in the Heartlands

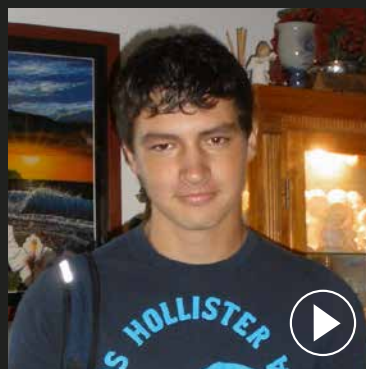

1 x 87-minutes
Showmax

In 2021 the world of athletics was shocked to its core when across 6 months, 3 female athletes were murdered in Kenya, two in the renowned elite running community of Iten.

All had been killed by the men closest to them – their partners and coaches. This is the story of all three women, and the proliferation of control and violence that goes hand in hand with the coaching of female athletes in Kenya and beyond...

The Dakota Entrapment Tapes

1 x 90-minutes

In a sleepy North Dakota town, where the crime rate is so low people often don't lock their front doors, 20-year-old college student Andrew Sadek mysteriously disappears in May 2014 and is found dead almost two months later.

What Andrew's friends and family didn't know was that in the months before his death, he had been coerced into becoming an informant for an aggressive police task force that had been secretly operating for years.

The documentary reveals the abuse of power by law enforcement on a huge scale in the investigation of Sadek's disappearance and death.

Also available: 2 x 45-minute version

Deep Web: The Hunt for Dread Pirate Roberts

1 x 90-minutes

Narrated by Keanu Reeves, Deep Web: The Hunt for Dread Pirate Roberts gives the inside story of one of the most important and riveting digital crime sagas of the century – the arrest of Ross William Ulbricht, the convicted 30-year-old entrepreneur accused to be 'Dread Pirate Roberts,' creator and operator of online black market Silk Road.

The film explores how the brightest minds and thought leaders behind the Deep Web are now caught in the crosshairs of the battle for control of a future inextricably linked to technology, with our digital rights hanging in the balance.

Dogs of War

1 x 101-minutes
BBC

Dogs of War explores the phenomenon of modern mercenaries and illicit arms trafficking through the story of one man who operated at the heart of this covert and dangerous world for over thirty years.

Dave Tomkins was a flamboyant safe blower from Basingstoke, England. His underworld connections led him to the battlefields of Angola, where he became a mercenary fighting communist backed guerrillas. Wounded by a landmine, Dave returned home and entered the murky world of espionage, setting up mercenary operations, assassinations and huge arms deals. His exploits became legendary as he accumulated great wealth and lived a lavish jet-setting lifestyle, until a highly dangerous mission in America led to his dramatic downfall.

The Durban Axe Murderer: The Rugby Killer

1 x 76-minutes
Showmax

To his friends, family and former professional rugby teammates he was a quiet 'teddy bear', but little did they know that Joseph Ntshongwana was a serial killer who stalked the streets of Durban in his car searching for victims.

Joseph claimed to be avenging the gang rape and subsequent HIV infection of his daughter – but police found he had no children. A contentious trial followed in which the killer's diagnosis of schizoaffective disorder was centre stage.

“An extraordinarily compelling programme.”
NEWSTALK

“Compelling.”
THE TELEGRAPH

El Chapo & Sean Penn: Bungle in the Jungle

1 x 45-minutes
Reelz

For Sean Penn, El Chapo was to be his 'Treasure of The Sierra Madre'. The most wanted, most dangerous and richest drug lord in the world agreed to meet Penn in the remote mountains of Sinaloa state, to grant the first and only interview since he escaped from Mexico's number one security prison.

For the first time, cameras go inside that rendezvous and reveal the true story of what happened behind the scenes, who orchestrated the meeting, the identities of the two mystery men travelling with Penn and the secret Hollywood figure who's really pulling strings, with a $6 million offer for El Chapo's life story rights.

“Bungle in the Jungle promises “shocking details” behind actor’s Rolling Stone article, Kate Del Castillo’s motives.

THE WRAP

The Fake Match & The Fixer

1 x 46-minutes
Showmax

September 2010 – Togo’s national soccer team travel 3,500 miles to play in an exhibition game against Bahrain.

When Bahrain lost 3-0, their coach raised his suspicions about the Togoan team who seemed incapable of lasting the 90 minutes.

It emerged that the match had been set up by Raj Perumal – who made a series of shocking claims. That he had been responsible for Nigeria’s qualification for the 2014 World Cup; had rigged South Africa’s friendlies before the 2010 World Cup; and was responsible for rigging hundreds of international games to make money from illegal betting schemes.

Falklands: Island of Secrets

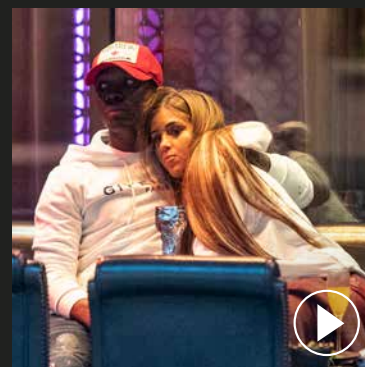

1 x 90-minutes
ITV

A truly eye-opening film in which Marcel Theroux reveals a dark side to the remote island community of the Falkland Islands, including stories of suspected murder and a mother’s quest to find her lost son, the young Royal Marine Alan Addis who walked out of a bar and vanished into thin air.

“Compelling.

THE SUN

The Footballer Fraudster

1 x 90-minutes
ITV

Footballer, rapper, con artist... Medi Abalimba’s sophisticated web of lies swindled multiple victims, breaking hearts and destroying lives.

This feature-documentary gets under the skin of how he did it, the psychology of why, and the long-lasting damage caused to the many victims who trusted him.

Also available: 1 x 67-minute version

“Astonishing.

THE NEW YORK TIMES

Football’s Trillion Dollar Con: For King and County

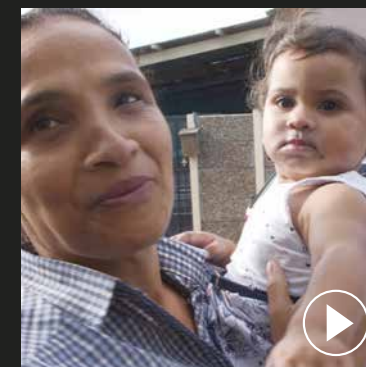

1 x 90-minutes

This is the story of how one man won over the football world, acquired a stake in a bank and courted North Korea in a bombastic trillion-dollar caper.

After years in administration, the world’s oldest football club, Notts County, is taken over by mysterious backers. Promising Bahraini billions and a ticket to the Premier League, the biggest names in football are enticed in, led by ex-England manager Sven-Goran Eriksson. In the shadows is Russell King. He boasted ownership of half a London bank, a Formula 1 team and a trillion-dollar deal with North Korea. His contact list was out-of-this-world and his elaborate lifestyle convinced everybody he was the real deal.

But when an investigation digs into where the money is coming from, King’s house of cards topples – uncovering a series of frauds over decades that delivered heartbreak and devastation.

Girl, Taken

1 x 92-minutes
MNET

The incredible story of two parents whose baby was stolen at birth, who miraculously found her 17-years later, and who then lost her again...

Girl, Taken follows the decades-long mystery of what happened to baby Zephany, and how a miraculous turn of events revealed the truth about who took her and why.

“Compelling and heart-breaking stuff.

HEAT MAGAZINE

In the Cold Dark Night

1 x 92-minutes
Hulu, Sky Documentaries

The story of Timothy Coggins, a young black man who was lynched in 1983 in Georgia, examining the deep-rooted racism that impacted the case and the long fight for justice.

Nominated by the Georgia Film Critics Association for the prestigious Oglethorpe Award for Excellence in Georgia Cinema, In the Cold Dark Night takes viewers on a journey that starts with a Black man, Timothy Coggins, being murdered in 1983. At the time, the Sheriff's office doesn't investigate the murder and we watch as African-American law enforcement officers are side lined when they try to pursue the investigation.

Also available: 4 x half hour version

In the Shadow of 9/11

1 x 94-minutes
PBS

Five years in the making, In the Shadow of 9/11 examines the moral panic that emerged from 9/11 as well as the FBI's subsequent search to uncover the "enemy within".

From the director of Leaving Neverland, In the Shadow of 9/11 documents the tragic and bizarre story of the 'Liberty City Seven' – a group of young Black men accused of assisting Al Qaeda in a plot to blow up buildings within the USA.

Also available:
1 x 111-minute version

“Revisits a tale of wildly misapplied logic.”
THE GUARDIAN

Kardashian: The Man Who Saved OJ

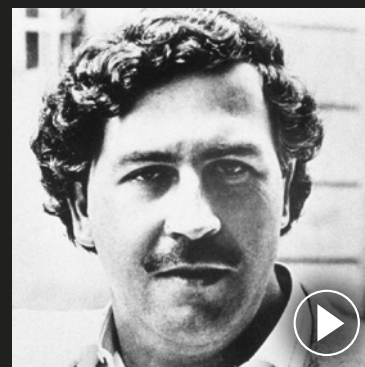

1 x 45-minutes
Reelz

Forget everything you thought you knew about O.J. Simpson and the brutal murder of Nicole Brown Simpson and Ron Goldman.

An inside look at Robert Kardashian's friendship with O.J. Simpson, which altered the course of one of the most talked about murder trials.

“★★★★★
An enthralling documentary.”
THE TELEGRAPH

Killing Escobar

1 x 89-minutes
BBC

The true story of the mission to assassinate the world's most dangerous man.

In 1989, Scottish mercenary and ex-SAS operative, Peter McAleese, was hired by a Colombian drug cartel to lead a small team of ex-special forces commandos on a mission to assassinate the world's biggest drug baron, Pablo Escobar.

With access to never-before-seen footage of the mission and interviews with McAleese and other key players in the story, Killing Escobar reveals how McAleese's violent upbringing in Glasgow, his training in the SAS and experience as a mercenary in Africa led him into the jungles of Colombia to kill Escobar, and how this mission would reshape his life forever.

“Heroically frank.”
THE GUARDIAN

Last Man Standing: Suge Knight and the Murders of Biggie & Tupac

1 x 105-minutes
BBC

Filmmaker Nick Broomfield returns to the unsolved murders of Biggie Smalls and Tupac Shakur, and to the figure at the center of it all, Suge Knight, his label Death Row Records and how LA's street gang culture came to dominate the company's business workings.

Presenting new material and evidence never heard before, this film is the definitive story of Suge Knight and the murders of Biggie and Tupac.

“Broomfield comes close to answering the questions – of guilt and recrimination – that have hung over these murders for too long.”
VARIETY

The London Underground Killer

1 x 90-minutes
Prime Video

Kieran Kelly, Ireland's most prolific serial killer or total fantasist?

In a South London police station, officers are shocked to discover a man has been murdered in a locked cell. The suspected killer is his cellmate, a homeless man named Kieran Kelly, in custody for theft. Kieran Kelly goes on to confess having killed dozens of people over the previous 30 years, claiming to have pushed his first victim to his death under a London Underground train.

This documentary explores what is fact and what is fiction, by talking to the those who have first-hand knowledge of serial killer Kieran Kelly.

Look
Away

1 x 88-minutes
Sky Crime

Look Away confronts the darker side of rock and a subject the music industry has glossed over for years: abuse against women.

For the first time, women, some of whom were groomed in their teenage years, offer an unfiltered account of their experiences as they share some of the abuses and exploitation that were tolerated in the music industry in the 70's and 80's. These women share their encounters with powerful music names like front men Steven Tyler and Axl Rose, and Kim Fowley, manager of fledgling teen group The Runaways.

“A timely and often harrowing exposé.”
THE TELEGRAPH

The Man Who
Stole the Scream

1 x 90-minutes
Sky Documentaries

This is the remarkable story of the theft of one of the most iconic paintings in history, Edvard Munch's The Scream.

Stolen during the 1994 Winter Olympics in Norway, it was an outrageously bold art heist that triggered a thrilling cat-and-mouse caper, involving the Norwegian authorities, the global media and Scotland Yard's specialist Art Squad. Mischievous and profoundly moving, it's an extraordinary Scandi-noir psychological crime caper.

Also available: 2 x one hour version

“Incredible story... Strange and fascinating.”
THE GUARDIAN

The Marathon
Brothers

1 x 40-minutes
Showmax

The 90km Comrades Marathon from Pietermaritzburg to Durban is one of the most grueling and infamous in the international endurance running calendar.

In 1999 Fika Motsoeneng, then 21, came ninth in what was a phenomenal performance. The victory was, however, one of the most audacious examples of cheating in sport.

Halfway through the marathon, Fika swapped with his brother Sergio who appeared fresh for the second half of the race. It is a sporting scandal that continues to anger. But what of the brothers who were at the eye of the storm?

Monkey on a
Stick. Murder,
Madness and
the Hare Krishnas

1 x 90-minutes
Hollywood Suite, Bell Media

This chilling exposé of institutionalised corruption, co-authored by investigative journalists John Hubner and Lindsey Gruson has obtained exclusive access to the participation of Nori Muster, a former Krishna insider turned whistleblower.

The film explores Krishna Consciousness and exposes the movement's systemic, decades-long cover-up of criminality, moral decay and abuse of power. The documentary's central subject, Nori Muster, was an ardent follower of the International Society for Krishna Consciousness (ISKCON) until she discovered the organisation's dark underbelly, which ranged from stockpiling weapons, dealing drugs, and fraudulent fund-raising to sexual assault, child abuse and ultimately murder.

Murder at
First Swipe

1 x 90-minutes
Prime Video

The shocking true story of Stephen Port, a serial killer hiding in plain sight. A tale of false narrative, multiple identities, police failure and a man who was allowed to kill again and again.

Serial killer Stephen Port scoured dating apps to choose and target his victims. He then drugged, raped and murdered them, before discarding their lifeless bodies on the streets of East London. Featuring exclusive interviews from those closest to the case, and unseen correspondence from Port himself, this new feature documentary explores the web of lies spread by a killer hiding in plain sight.

Murder in a Teacup

1 x 90-minutes
Prime Video

When members of a workforce began falling violently ill, locals believed a virus was sweeping the area, but after the death of two men it became clear that the only impurity was a serial poisoner with a toxic past.

When colleagues at photographic equipment supplier, John Hadland's began falling ill, the locals all believed there was something harmful in the village water supply. When investigators were called in, it soon became clear that the only impurity at Hadland's was an enigmatic member of the storeroom – Graham Young.

The 23-year-old trainee had been lacing the workforce's tea and coffee with a lethal poison. When detectives began digging into Young's background, they discovered a toxic past.

The Murder of Meredith

1 x 90-minutes
Prime Video

The brutal murder of Meredith Kercher in the university town of Perugia, Italy, led to a media frenzy with dizzying twists and turns, and speculation. Over the years, Meredith's life and reputation have been pulled apart and eclipsed by that of her then flatmate, the infamous Amanda Knox.

Told by those involved in the case, The Murder of Meredith examines the evidence, the egos, and the errors that left Meredith's family with more questions than answers.

“In equal parts, a story about a horrific family tragedy and societal issues that range from ignorance to outright racism.

VARIETY

The Murder of Sandra Rivett

1 x 90-minutes
Prime Video

When Lord Lucan, a member of the British aristocracy, fled from a bloody murder scene in London's exclusive Belgravia district – a mythology was born.

While the hunt for Lucan has dominated the narrative for half a century, the name of his victim, Sandra Rivett was forgotten. Until now.

With varying theories of what actually happened on the night that Sandra was killed, including a first-hand account of life in the Lucan household from the family's former nanny, The Murder of Sandra Rivett also highlights how differently the scandal would have been resolved had it occurred today.

Murder Rap: Inside the Biggie and Tupac Murders

1 x 113-minutes
Reelz

For the first time, the true story behind these sensational cases is laid bare in Murder Rap: Inside the Biggie and Tupac Murders.

Using invaluable information sourced from hundreds of police case files as well as taped confessions never before shown on film, and interviews with lead detective Greg Kading and other witnesses, this is the riveting account of the task force that finally exposed the shocking truth behind the deaths of these two rap music icons.

“A well-produced and provocative film that makes a disturbing case.

HIPHOP DX

The Murder that Changed Britain

1 x 67-minutes
CBS Reality

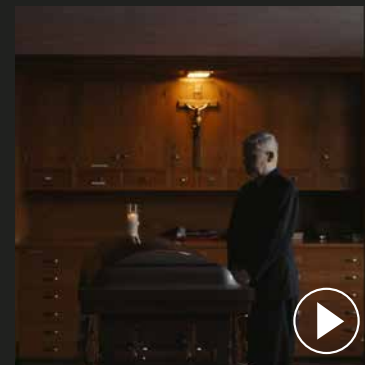

On the 15th July 1992 a young mother called Rachel Nickell was murdered on Wimbledon Common as her three year old son Alex looked on. Her death would lead to one of the most notorious miscarriages of justice in British criminal history.

An innocent man called Colin Stagg was imprisoned for a crime he did not commit. The real killer, Robert Napper roamed free to kill another young mother called Samantha Bisset and her daughter Jasmine. The fallout that followed would see the case branded as The Murder that Changed Britain. For the first time, Professor Paul Britton answers these questions and many more.

“Unmissable.

READER'S DIGEST

My Name is Bulger

1 x 90-minutes
Discovery+

Bill Bulger, now 85, was State Senate President for almost 20 years, in Massachusetts. His older brother James 'Whitey' Bulger was a Boston gangster who was murdered in prison on October 30th 2018, aged 89. My Name is Bulger weaves its way through the stories of both brothers and their respective rises and falls.

The film strips away the hysteria of daily print headlines and nightly news bulletins to unfold the story of a unique American family who crave to be judged for who they are and what they've done, not what their infamous relative did.

“Few family sagas were as ready-made for Hollywood as the tale of the brothers Bulger.

THE NEW YORK TIMES

Original Sin: My Son the Killer

1 x 90-minutes
Showmax

On the 2nd May 2011 in Johannesburg South Africa, Gerhard Jansen van Vuuren stabbed his girlfriend fourteen times, killing her in broad daylight, and all caught on CCTV.

Original Sin: My Son the Killer weaves a chilling narrative of Gerhard Jansen van Vuuren, seen through the haunted gaze of his mother. This crime thriller pulls you into a world where familial shadows loom large over present horrors. We move between the chilling scene of Andrea Venter's murder and the twisted lineage of Gerhard's upbringing, unraveling how the hidden scars of an abusive father and a dark family history forged him into a cold-blooded killer.

“Gripping.

FASHION FORCE AFRICA MAGAZINE

Princess Anne: The Plot to Kidnap a Royal

1 x one hour
Channel 4

The remarkable story about Princess Anne's brush with death. On the 20th March 1974 Ian Ball enacted his plan to carry out one of the most high-profile crimes in British history, to kidnap Princess Anne.

Princess Anne: The Plot to Kidnap a Royal is a stranger than fiction documentary providing a three-dimensional look into a shocking crime, using cutting-edge technology and exclusive eye-witness testimony.

“Strangely mesmerising.

THE TIMES

Prophet's Prey

1 x 92-minutes
Showtime

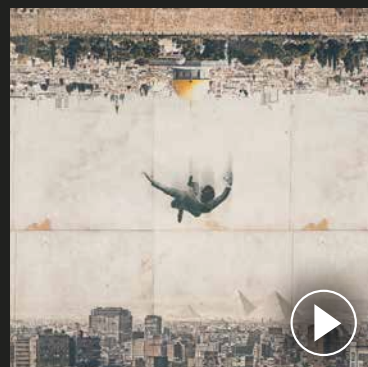

As with any good religious tale, it boils down to sex, greed, and the preservation of wealth.

From critically acclaimed, Emmy® Award-winning and Oscar®-nominated documentary filmmaker Amy Berg (Deliver Us from Evil), Prophet's Prey examines Fundamentalist Church leader Warren Jeffs' life to show how he seized control of people's lives, at the head of an organisation worth hundreds of millions of dollars.

“Comprehensive, disturbing and utterly fascinating.

THE HOLLYWOOD REPORTER

The Spy Who Fell to Earth

1 x 94-minutes
Netflix

The Spy Who Fell to Earth delves into the multi-faceted life and death of the world's greatest spy, Ashraf 'The Angel' Marwan.

Midday on 27th June 2007, just after his secret identity was revealed to the world, the notorious Egypt-born double-agent Marwan was found dead after plummeting from his fifth-floor London flat – was it suicide, or an assassination? Filmed in multiple international locations and featuring exclusive first-hand interviews and dramatic reconstructions, this intriguing special takes us into the complex web of events that culminated in The Angel falling to his death.

A Tale of Two Thieves

1 x 78-minutes

In 1963 in the countryside in England, fifteen men pulled off 'The Great Train Robbery' netting today's equivalent of $85 million.

We've read the books, seen the TV specials. We've heard Ronnie Biggs and Bruce Reynolds reel off their usual spiel. We think we know the full story by now. But the truth is, we've never heard the actual inside story.

Because no one's ever learned the identity of the missing mastermind – the elusive and mysterious 'Ulsterman.' Until now.

“Riveting... enthralling new insights.

EMPIRE

Tales of the Grim Sleeper

1 x 110-minutes
Sky Crime

Lonnie Franklin Jr. was arrested in July 2010 after a 25-year killing spree in which it is thought he could have killed over 100 victims, potentially making him the most prolific serial killer in history. His arrest was not the product of detective work but completely accidental, the result of a computer DNA match that linked him to a possible 20 victims.

Nick Broomfield's Tales of the Grim Sleeper investigates the reason the killings were able to go on for so long, and is a story of cruel crimes, a police force that didn't care and a community estranged and abandoned from the rest of society.

“A powerful, gripping endeavor... a masterstroke of polemical fury.

INDIEWIRE

When We Speak

1 x 77-minutes

British intelligence employee Katharine Gun, Oxfam aid worker Helen Evans and Hollywood actress Rose McGowan open the lid on what happens to women who risk everything to tell the truth.

Whistleblowers rarely understand the impact telling the truth will have on their own lives. When We Speak tells the story of women at the centre of high-profile exposés, revealing what drove them to speak.

ONE OFF FEATURES

Yusuf Hawkins:
Storm Over
Brooklyn

1 x 100-minutes
HBO

His murder brought a community to its feet and a city to its knees.

Directed by Muta'Ali, Yusuf Hawkins: Storm Over Brooklyn tells the story of a black American teenager who was shot and murdered after being trapped by a group of white youths in Bensonhurst, Brooklyn, on the evening of August 23rd 1989.

“A documentary with elements of a thriller.

THE WALL STREET JOURNAL

sphereabacus